BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Reports that his step-mother hāfara Lakshmanammāi breathed her last on 1-9-09 & prays that the pension of Rs 33-12-0 registered in her name may be transferred to him.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

In July '09 the petitioner's mother - hāfara Lakshmanammāi prayed that the pension enjoyed by her may be registered in the name of <sup>her</sup> ~~his~~ step-son - Puttanniah, as he is the only heir to succeed her & also who alone should perform her funeral obsequies.

O

In reply to the above, an endorsement was issued in D.O. No. 1056 of 13-8-09, informing "that her prayer will be considered when her pension becomes available for transfer to another person".

N

In D.O. No. P.P. 86-87 of 10-11-00 the pension was sanctioned to Kalpana Lakshmanamm, subject to the condition that she should maintain her step-son Pattanayya who is living with her.

Kind attention is also invited to Mr. Mambos Chettiar's notes in the file.

The pension has to be continued. The devolution of Poligar pensions is <sup>generally</sup> according to Hindu law. The notes flagged N+Q also show that it was ~~also~~ the object to strictly follow the principles of the Hindu law of <sup>Succession</sup> ~~Succession~~, but as a fact that does not seem to have <sup>been</sup> done; for instance of counting the relationship from the last male holder Chayammami's <sup>son</sup> father, she herself seems to have been made the propositus and the claim of one Venkata narayanaswami a distant agnate of her <sup>son</sup> father is allowed.
